

Module 4

Firefox API Hooking with ImmunityDebugger

Firefox uses a function called `PR_Write` inside a dll module called `nss3.dll` to write/submit data.

So once the target enters his username and password and click on login button the firefox process will call `PR_Write` function from `nss3.dll` module, if we setup a break point at that function we should see the data in clear text.

Reference:-

https://developer.mozilla.org/en-US/docs/Mozilla/Projects/NSPR/Reference/PR_Write